CATTLE TRESPASSING UPON FERN'S LAND

Mayor Fern is having some trouble about cattle on his Kona estate. Some months ago he subleased, at $135 a year rental, from T. C. White for the unexpired term of seventeen years twenty-one acres of the lands held by White under lease from the Bishop (state. He sent his check for a year's rent to White and had his sub-lease

By last mail from Kona Mayor

Fern was informed that White's cattle had been turned upon the land and were damaging the coffee trees be. sides scaring the timid coffee pickers from their work. He is sending instructions to his brother-in-law by the outgoing mail to post a notice against trespassing on the land, also to request White to keep his cattle off, and,

MAILES BEAT OAHUS.

The Maile ball team defeated the Oahus Sunday at Kalihi park by the close score of 7 to 6. The winners are now out with a general challenge, which may be accepted through these columns.

All wrapping twine taken from packages should be wound into balls and put away in a convenient drawer, so that if needed in a hurry no time may be lost in looking for it.
